

FABA SHOW INFORMATION

All halter show questions may be directed to Patty Fuller, Halter Show Superintendent, at Fuller@poplarhill.com.

This is an AOA Certified Halter Show and will be run in accordance with the 2015 AOA Show Handbook. All alpacas must have a health certificate from your vet within 30 days of the last day of the show, Jan. 15, 2015, which includes their ARI Certificate number and MICROCHIP NUMBER. Every alpaca should be free of infectious disease.

AOA RULES REQUIRE THAT ALL ALPACAS BE MICROCHIPPED, AND EACH ALPACA WILL BE CHECKED. Bring a copy of your health certificate to give to the show superintendent.

- A veterinarian will be on call all weekend. If you require veterinarian services, you are responsible for the payment.
- Exhibitors who have not registered with the AOA Show Division will be charged $80.00 per farm.
- All alpacas must be at least 6 months old as of the first day of the show. (February 14th)
- Substitutions from the original Class Entry Form may only be granted by the Show Superintendent; Patty Fuller – Fuller@poplarhill.com. Permission must be obtained PRIOR to arrival at the show.
- All alpacas entering the venue must have an ARI Registration Certificate before they can be shown. A copy of the ARI Registration Certificate for all animals is required to be sent with the entry form. No animal will be allowed to show under pending papers. All animals must be entered in the name of the owner as listed on the ARI Registration Certificate or Owner of Record form (which must be signed by the owner listed on the ARI Registration Certificate) and must be provided.
- Get of Sire and Produce of Dam class entries are entered in the name of the Sire or Dam. An original copy of the ARI of the Sire or Dam will be required. Entry fees are also required.

All alpacas entered in or present at all AOA Certified shows must be negative for BVDV by a PCR or VI lab test and said negative results shall be indicated on the Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI) (Health Papers). VI must have been completed prior to 1/10/2010.

You must bring a printed version of the CVI and also a copy of your CVI for your Show Superintendent as they are required to keep a copy of your Certificate of Veterinary Inspection.
